

WEEKENDER:

Officers Hold Gambling Raid, Arrest 10 Men

Complaints from housewives that their husbands were losing their pay checks before they ever got off the job led to the arrest of 10 construction workers here Friday afternoon at a huge chemical plant at Del Amo and Hawthorne Ave.

The raid, led by officers of the Sheriff's vice squad under the direction of Capt. W. A. McMann, followed weeks of investigation in which members of the department put on work clothes and steel helmets and joined the construction crews on the job.

VFW Installation

The sixth annual Joint Mass Installation, honoring newly elected post and auxiliary officers of the fourth district Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium.

Charges Dropped

Charges of felony drunk driving against a 47-year-old Torrance man were dismissed Thursday in Compton Municipal Court by Judge Ralph C. Dills.

Richard H. Knott, 47, of 1348 W. 220th St., who appeared in court in a wheel chair, still in a cast for a broken back, was acquitted. The accident took place last June 20 at El Segundo Blvd., just off Wilmingon Ave. in Compton.

New Bill Approved

City approval of pending legislation which would enable revenue bond issues for airport development was sent to Sacramento Saturday by City Manager George Stevens after a poll of City Council members during the week.

A letter on the Council's approval of the measure, Assembly Bill 33, was sent to Assemblyman Vincent Thomas who had asked about the city's wishes on the matter.

Asst. Chief In Hospital

Assistant Police Chief Percy Bennett spent last week in a local hospital for a routine physical check-up. He was expected to have been released over the week end, according to Chief Willard H. Haslam.

CIO Endorsements

Three candidates for the Council in the election to be held here next week have received the endorsement of the Greater Los Angeles CIO Council, it was revealed here Saturday by Albert T. Luceford, secretary-treasurer of the Council.

Endorsed by the CIO, on the recommendation of the Harbor Political Action Committee (PAC), were incumbent Victor E. Benstead Jr., member of Steelworkers Local 1414; Gordon A. Lewis, member of Oil, Chemical, and Atomic Workers Local 1-519; and Jack E. White, member of Local 384 of the International Association of Machinists.

School Aid Asked

Torrance's need for help in maintaining its schools' building program was stressed in a letter to Gov. Goodwin Knight, sent recently by Charlton A. Mewborn, president of the Board of Education.

The letter asked state support and consideration by the governor of a new short-term loan proposal in providing additional building funds for local schools.

SCARECROW SYSTEM

Farmers in Great Britain are now able to purchase strings of firecrackers which will explode at intervals to scare off birds from their fields.

VATICAN STATUS
ROME—The Vatican state was established by a treaty with Italy during 1929.
